

'Digital Assistant' technology

New technology means I can now get my computer to take notes during our consultation.

I can then spend less time typing and more time focussed on YOU!

So it's a bit like having a Digital Assistant!

However, I will always review the notes for complete accuracy.

Before using the Digital Assistant I will of course ASK for your consent first.

