

Website privacy policy

We are committed to protecting your privacy.

We treat our users' privacy as we would like our privacy to be treated when browsing the web. Any data we collect, or process, is done for legitimate reasons and carefully considered. We do not disclose any information to third parties, we do however use third parties to carry out analytical processing. These are mentioned in our cookies policy. Any personal information that users provide us with, cannot be seen by third parties.

If you have any questions or concerns which our policies do not address, please get in touch with us

Home - Maybury Surgery

Information we collect and use

There are sections in our website where we may ask you for your details to make contact with us. Any information you provide will remain our secured property. Under no circumstances will it be sold or rented to any third party.

Other than the data you choose to provide, we have some cookies which help improve the experience for our site visitors. If you haven't already, go and check them out in our cookie policy.

How we use your contact information

If you've provided us with your contact details through this website, we'll only use them to get back to you. This might be because you've made a request to the surgery for an appointment or a prescription.

Date Published: 10th April, 2026

Date Last Updated: 10th April, 2026